

OUR STORY

From the Creators of Kokni Kanteen 1972, Catpro by Girish Desai, & Catpro Gourmet We proudly reintroduce NH-17 Culture & Cuisine in a Contemporary Avatar

One of the best parts of any road journey in India involves relishing inexplicably delicious food at roadside eateries on the highway. Back in the early 2000s, NH-17 Kitchen & Bar in Porvorim, North Goa was more than just a place to eat along this iconic road; it was a cherished stop where travelers forged connections over steaming plates of hearty meals, savoring the simple joys of life along its route.

Memories of NH-17 linger on in the minds of those who still recall its charm. Inspired by the rich experience of global influx along this coastal expanse, we bring you NH-17 Culture & Cuisine, at Clube Tennis De Gaspar Dias.

An audacious fusion of coastal delicacies, Pan-Asian cuisine, and Continental flavors, reimagined as an all-day diner offering an enticing menu in an understated, modern interior.

It promises an ambiance that is as inclusive as it is irresistible. Inviting you to gather, unwind, and enjoy every moment with gusto! Each dish has its own playful twist and a story to tell.

Our diner beautifully evokes a sense of nostalgia with a refreshing new vibe. Whether you're here for a leisurely meal or to mingle with fellow clubmates, this space is an exploration of India's culinary diversity; one that has ingrained the spirit of the highway into the urbanscape of the city.

Hit the brakes on the daily grind & feel the soulful links of your journey at NH-17.
